Dear Parent/Carer,

Peter Pan Film

This term we have been reading Peter Pan by J.M Barrie. As an end of year treat we re going to watch Disney's Peter Pan on Thursday 18th December.

We recognise that this film contains some outdated depictions of people and cultures that do not reflect modern values or understanding. We will use these elements as valuable teaching opportunities to help children critically examine stereotypes, understand how cultural attitudes have evolved over time, and develop respectful perspectives about diversity.

Yours sincerely
