

Spring into a new book or dig into a new genre

from Mrs Margerison

The Day I fell into a Fairytale – Ben Miller

Enter a world of wonder and fall into the bestselling classic adventure from the fastest-growing UK children's author, Ben Miller.

Lana and her brother, Harrison, used to love playing together – until Harrison decided he was too old for games. But when a trip to the supermarket uncovers a magical portal to the world of fairytales, Lana discovers that stories aren't a game. With the fairytale world in danger, can Lana convince Harrison to believe again, before it's too late?

Escape the Rooms – Stephen Mangan

'Escape the Rooms' is richly imagined and deeply heartfelt, and Anita Mangan's cartoonish and poignant illustrations capture the tone perfectly ... It reminded me a little of The Wizard of Oz, with the children on a quest through different lands to get home."

The last thing Jack expected when he bungee-jumped at the fairground was to go plummeting right through the ground into the weird, wonderful Rooms...There he must face a series of puzzles and traps alongside a mysterious girl called Cally, in order for them to find their way home.

The Danger Gang – Tom Fletcher

Franky can't wait to move to his new town - although he wishes he didn't have to leave his best friend Dani behind.

But everything changes after the storm, when strange green lightning and powerful thunder crash down on the town. From that night on, the kids who live on Franky's street start to change.

See Inside Your Body – Katie Daynes

Fabulous flap book that reveals the inner workings of the human body. Bright, original colour illustrations all the major organs of the human body and are accompanied by witty, clear and informative text.

